About Videographer Awards

The Videographer Awards is one of the most coveted awards in the video industry. Since 1994, the goal of the Videographer Awards is to identify and recognize the artisans who excel in the scope of their own environment.

The Videographer Awards is administered and judged by the Association of Marketing and Communication Professionals (ACMP). The international organization consists of several thousand marketing, communication, advertising, public relations, media production and free-lance professionals who have entered AMCP programs. The Advisory Board oversees awards and recognition programs, provides judges and sets standards of excellence.

The Award of Excellence was awarded to those projects the judges deemed were written, produced, shot and edited in an exceptional manner. Award of Excellence winners are listed on the Videographer Awards website at www.videoawards.com.

About Marcom Awards

MarCom Awards honors excellence in marketing and communication while recognizing the creativity, hard work and generosity of industry professionals. Since its inception in 1995, MarCom has evolved into one of the largest, most-respected creative competitions in the world. Each year about 6,000 print and digital entries are submitted from dozens of countries. MarCom is administered by the Association of Marketing and Communication Professionals (AMCP). The international organization, founded in 1995, consists of several thousand marketing, communication, advertising, public relations, digital and web professionals. The Marcom Award is crafted by Society Awards, makers of the Golden Globes, Emmys, CLIOS, MTV, Academy of Country Music and American Music Awards.
