#37 Mad Mimi

Mad Mimi is a lovely, simple email service that lets you create, send and track email newsletters. Over 150,000 businesses use Mad Mimi to handle email the simple way.

Originally, they didn’t set out to create an unusually good email marketing company. They had simply set out to create an unusually good email. They needed something stylish, simple and easy to make, to promote their little music company.

They searched for email services online and found millions – but didn’t like them. The outdated templates, the overall spam feel of the promos, and the general lack of joie de vivre in the process.

Instead of settling for the status quo, they
Instead of settling for the status quo, they designed their own email campaigns. Soon, people were asking to help design emails for them. And Mad Mimi was born… so that everyone could create a well-designed, elegant email. Even Grandma. (It’s that easy.)

Soon, they added robust delivery, easy audience management, tracking and support. All handled in that simple, powerful, semi-rebellious way that makes the other, complacent email marketing companies nervous… and you happy.

If you need to do some email marketing, on a small or grand scale, try Mad Mimi. They made it with people like you in mind.

#26 Madécasse

Brooklyn-based Madécasse [mah-day-kas] was founded in 2008 by former Peace Corps volunteers. While living in Madagascar, they came to understand why Africa remains the poorest continent in the world—it supplies 70% of the world’s cocoa but 0% of its chocolate. Inspired to change this, Madécasse was born, becoming the only company producing high quality bean-to-bar, hand-wrapped chocolate and vanilla products on the continent of Africa.

Madagascar is the 10th poorest country in the world, and the average person lives off of less than a dollar a day. By providing equipment and training – and producing the entire product locally – Madécasse is able to provide 100% of production costs to the people of Madagascar.

Madécasse was named one of the “World’s 50 Most Innovative Companies” in 2011 by Fast Company and its “2012 Leaders of Change” by the United Nations Office of Partnerships

Madécasse chocolate and vanilla products are available in stores nationwide and online at madecasse.com (http://www.madecasse.com/)

#16 Full Circle Home

Full Circle Designs and manufactures a line of innovative, sustainable household cleaning, storage, and composting products. The result of a vision shared by a group of friends: a brand that balances style, function, sustainability and affordability in every single product. Being advocates of greener lifestyles; they were constantly dissatisfied with the poor selection of quality green goods on the market. This is why they strive to create products that are of superior design and creativity, combined with eco-friendly materials and functional efficacy. The name Full Circle comes from their philosophy that a product’s life cycle should be cyclical rather than linear. Products made from materials that come from the earth can have long, functional lives, and then return from where they came, rather than collecting in a landfill.
